

Changes of Officers for the ACA
December 19, 1997

Jim Buss has stepped down as President of the American Cuemaker's Association. Buss has served as President Vice President, and Secretary/Treasurer for the last 3 years, and stated that he just doesn't have the time that the job requires. Buss will continue as Secretary/Treasurer. The Board of Directors has named Jerry McWorter to replace Buss as President, and Dan Dishaw as Vice President. Buss was then named to replace McWorter as a member of the Board of Directors. Buss stated that he is "confident that both Jerry and Dan will do a fine job and I urge everyone to give them the respect and help that they have given me."
